The Bahá'ís of the Austin Area Request Your Support.

Please join us as we unite our fervent prayers with those of our friends around the world for the freedom of seven followers of the Bahá'í Faith in Iran.

You are first invited to offer prayers during a 24-hour period starting at noon on Saturday, February 6th, in your homes and your congregations.

Next, join us in the Austin Bahá'í Center on Sunday, February 7th, at 1:00 pm for a Special Devotional.

We wish to show sympathy for and solidarity with these innocent human beings as they face the conclusion of a trial on February 7th in Iran, after being unjustly charged with crimes that could result in severe consequences.

The Yárán, or "friends," in jail for almost two years have expressed that the prayers offered worldwide have been a constant source of comfort and support to them as they have withstood their long ordeal with heroic fortitude and patience.
